Farmingville, NY – Recently, Councilman Michael Loguercio attended the Pre-K graduation ceremonies at the Habitots Preschool and Child Care Centers in Middle Island (left photo) and Medford (right photo). During the ceremonies, he spoke with the graduates and presented them with Certificates of Congratulations from the Town Board. Councilman Loguercio thanked the owners and staff of Habitots for providing an enriched learning environment for all to enjoy and benefit from. He wished the youngsters tremendous success and thanked the families of the students for being a great support in this very important part of their development.

Councilman Loguercio said, "As a Past President of the Longwood Central School District Board of Education, I've had the wonderful opportunity to hand out many diplomas over the years. It's great to meet with these excited children who are just starting out on their education journey. I wish them all a bright future ahead."
